

Declaration of Applicants

Please put an 'x' in the boxes as appropriate:

- I have read the "Information for Applicants".
- I understand the attendance requirements for the course.
- I am in a good state of physical and mental health, appropriate to undertake an intensive course.
- I understand that assessment on the course is continuous.
- I understand that it is possible to fail the course.
- I understand that the course is practical and teaching practice is the focus.
- As such I understand that I will be observed and commented on by my peers and tutors in feedback and that I will observe and comment on my peers' lessons.
- I understand that the course has a heavy workload and I will be expected to do work (writing lesson plans and written tasks, doing background reading) outside of timetabled hours.
- I understand that my place on the course is not guaranteed until I have paid the deposit and been issued with a receipt by Atlas Language School.
- I understand that the course fee is non-refundable in the event that I drop out of the course before it ends. In the case of serious illness, fees may be transferrable to a future course, but this is at the absolute discretion of the Directors of Atlas Language School.
- I am a native speaker of English. If not, I have read and signed the non-native speaker waiver that states that I need to show evidence of a C2 level of English before I get the CELT.
- I have a level 7 qualification (e.g., a degree). If not, I have read and signed the non-degree holder waiver that states that I am aware that even with the CELT I will not be able to teach in recognised schools in Ireland until I gain a level 7 qualification.

Thank you for applying for a place on the CELT. Once you submit your application, you will be contacted within five working days by email to arrange an interview.
